38. (a) If the Senate is equally divided and the President is presiding, then the President shall give the deciding vote.

(b) If the Senate is equally divided and the President is not presiding, then:

(6) Exceptions to the limitations set out in Rule 45(b) are subject to approval by the President Pro Tempore.

(c) General Resolutions. General resolutions may be designated by the author for presentation in one of the following ways:

(c) No proxy votes are ever in order.

(d) A member of the committee, by motion, may request to be excused from voting on an amendment, ~~or a bill, or resolution~~ because of a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the subject of the amendment, ~~or bill, or resolution~~ that becomes evident during the committee hearing. Whether a Senator has a direct personal or pecuniary interest so as to be excused from voting on an amendment, ~~or bill, or resolution~~ shall be decided by the committee chairperson, or in the chairperson's absence the ranking majority member.

(e) A member of the Senate Ethics Committee who has requested an advisory opinion from that committee is not required to vote on the matter which is the subject of the request.

64. (a) In the event of a tie vote on a vote for final committee recommendation, the chairperson may call for a vote at a later time. If the chairperson fails to call the bill or joint resolution down for a second vote by the committee report deadline, that exact language or substantially similar language shall be considered decisively defeated and shall not be considered again during the session.

After a committee, other than the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure, has had a bill under consideration for six (6) days (Sunday and the day of its introduction not included) the author of such bill or any member of the Senate shall have the right to call the attention of the Senate to such fact. A bill or resolution shall remain in the possession of the committee to which it was assigned unless two-thirds of the Senators elected shall vote to bring the bill or resolution to the floor. (c) The committee to which a simple or concurrent resolution shall have been assigned may report thereon at any time prior to adjournment sine die. Senate simple or concurrent resolutions may be reported with or without amendment. House concurrent resolutions may be reported only without amendment.

If approved by the President Pro Tempore, an electronic signature PIN and filing of a minority report may be accepted.

(c) A minority report may be made only if a majority report on the same bill or resolution is before the Senate.

(d) If a minority report be made, the question shall be upon concurring in the minority report, and if not concurred in, the question shall then recur upon the majority report.

68. (a) After the assignment of, but prior to the filing of a committee report on, a bill or resolution, a committee which has the bill or resolution under consideration may include in the report a recommendation for reassignment of the bill or resolution to another committee.

69. The Chairperson of a committee reporting on a bill or resolution may open and close the general debate thereon, if any, except when operating under the previous question.

70. (a) Every bill or joint resolution which a committee shall report with a recommendation for passage or shall report without recommendation, shall be printed at once unless already printed. Every bill or joint resolution upon which a divided committee report is made and the report recommending passage is adopted, shall likewise be printed at once unless already printed.

(b) The bill or joint resolution shall be printed in accordance with the style specified in Rule 41 and shall implement the committee report. The committee report shall be appended, except for bills in which the committee report substitutes entirely new language as allowed by Rules 53, 54, or 82(e), in which case reference may be made to the printing.

(c) Whenever a bill or joint resolution shall be reported so as to require a printing of the bill or joint resolution, the number of copies to be printed will be determined by the President Pro Tempore and no more than have been so directed shall be printed at once. One (1) copy of each bill or joint resolution so printed shall be distributed or made available to each Senator electronically and sufficient copies shall be deposited with and made available electronically to the Legislative Services Agency for distribution to the public. Any remaining copies shall be deposited with the Office of the Principal Secretary for the use of the Senate.

72. (a) Whenever a printed copy of a bill or joint resolution is released electronically on the website or laid on the desks of the Senators, whichever occurs first, said bill or joint resolution shall be deemed distributed. For electronic distribution to be completed effectively, an email must also be sent to all Senators, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Senate Majority and Minority Attorney's Offices notifying of the release of the bill or joint resolution on the website. The However, the date of ~~such~~ distribution, for purposes of determining eligibility for second reading, shall be the date printed on the front of the bill or joint resolution, not the date of actual receipt of the electronic or printed copy.

(b) No bill shall be read a second time until one (1) calendar day after ~~such the~~ distribution date printed on the bill.

(c) A motion to place a bill back on second reading for purposes of amendment may be offered only by Senators whose name appears first on the backed original bill. However, if the first author or sponsor of a bill or resolution is absent from the floor, the second author or second sponsor may make the motion if permission of the first author or sponsor has been granted, either in writing or by oral communication verified by the President Pro Tempore or a member designated by the President Pro Tempore.

(d) Following the adoption of a motion to place a bill back on second reading for purposes of amendment, the Office of the Principal Secretary shall list the bill on the calendar as eligible for second reading the next day the Senate is convened. Amendments to be offered to the bill when placed back on second reading may be filed on any day the bill is listed on the calendar under this subsection.

73. (a) A motion to amend a bill or joint resolution on second reading is in order only if the motion is reduced to writing, contains the original signature of the author of the motion, is filed with the office of the Principal Secretary not less than two and one-half (2 ½) hours before the convening time of the session on the day on which the bill or joint resolution is called for second reading. If approved by the President Pro Tempore, an electronic signature PIN may be accepted.

(b) If a motion to amend has been timely filed for a bill or joint resolution eligible for call on a day the Senate is convened, but not distributed prior to convening that day, then the bill or joint resolution may not be called that day.

(c) This subsection applies to motions to amend that have been timely filed in correct form and distributed. When a duplicating error in a motion to amend is discovered after the bill is called, action on the bill may be suspended for not more than two (2) hours to allow for correction of the error and for distribution of corrected copies.

74. (a) If no amendments are made to a bill or joint resolution on second reading, the printed bill or joint resolution shall be used for the engrossed bill or joint resolution after each page thereof is duly authenticated by the engrossing clerk as to the correctness and genuineness of such page, and such printing so authenticated shall be the engrossed bill or joint resolution.

(b) If a bill or joint resolution is amended on second reading, the President Pro Tempore may order the entire bill or joint resolution to be reprinted as amended. If a bill or joint resolution is reprinted, such reprinted bill or joint resolution shall be used for the engrossed bill or joint resolution after each page thereof is duly authenticated by the engrossing clerk as to the correctness and genuineness of such page, and such reprinting so authenticated shall be the engrossed bill or joint resolution.

(c) If a bill or joint resolution is amended on second reading but is not ordered reprinted, the printed bill or joint resolution shall be used for the engrossed bill or joint resolution after each page thereof and each page of all amendments made thereto on second reading is duly authenticated by the engrossing clerk as to the correctness and genuineness of such page, and such printing and amendments thereto so authenticated shall be the engrossed bill or joint resolution.

75. (a) On the call of bills on second and third reading, no name of any Senator shall be called a second time until the entire roll has been called.

(b) A Senator may yield the right to call a bill on second or third reading when the Senator's name is called by stating the name of the Senator to whom the yield is given.

(c) No Senator shall call down more than one (1) bill on each roll call unless a yield has been first obtained for each additional bill called.

(d) Upon request of the President Pro Tempore and with the consent of the body, bills on second and third reading may be called by numerical order.

76. Bills and resolutions shall be called for action only by Senators whose names appear first and second respectively on the backed original bill or resolution. If the first author or sponsor of a bill or resolution is absent from the floor, the second author or sponsor may make the call if permission of the first author or sponsor has been granted, either in writing or by oral communication verified by the President Pro Tempore or a member designated by the President Pro Tempore.

77. When any bill has been ordered reprinted under Rule 74(b), such bill shall not be eligible for call on third reading until such reprinted copies shall have been distributed to the Senators.

78. Unless the constitutional rule be suspended, no bill shall be called for third reading on the same day it shall have passed to engrossment.

79. (a) No Senate bill or joint resolution amending the Constitution shall be called for third reading after February ~~25~~ 28 in the first session or February ~~3~~ 6 in the second session.

(b) No House bill or joint resolution amending the Constitution shall be called for third reading in the Senate after April ~~15~~ 12 in the first session or March ~~2~~ 6 in the second session.

(c) No House bill or joint resolution amending the Constitution shall be received by the Senate after noon on the next business day following the House's third reading deadline established by the Rules for the Government of the House.

(d) The limitations set forth in this Rule shall not apply to bills concerning reapportionment and redistricting only.

80. (a) No motion shall be received to amend a bill on its third reading, unless it is signed by two-thirds of the Senators elected. If approved by the President Pro Tempore, electronic signature PINs may be accepted.

(b) This Rule shall not apply to any motion to amend which corrects technical or printing errors. A motion to amend a bill or joint resolution on third reading shall be specifically designated "Technical Amendments". All technical amendments shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure without debate and said Committee shall have the right to report thereon at any time, and any such report shall be immediately disposed of by a majority vote of the Senators present and voting.

(c) This Rule shall not apply to any motion to commit the bill to a committee of one, consisting of the first or second author or sponsor, with specific directions to amend. A motion to commit to a committee of one must be made at the time a bill or joint resolution is called on third reading but prior to being placed on its passage. A motion to commit to a committee of one shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure without debate, which may report on the motion at any time, and any such report shall be immediately disposed of by a majority vote of the Senators present and voting. If the Rules and Legislative Procedure Committee Report is adopted, then the committee of one shall report that it has amended the bill as directed and such report shall be disposed of by a majority vote of the Senators present and voting. The bill or joint resolution shall then be open for debate and placed upon its passage.

81. (a) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but shall have received the affirmative vote of a majority of the Senators present (more yeas than nays, but less than 26 yeas), such bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote, without debate, on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution at the beginning of the calendar, ahead of all other business, under the separate heading "Rule 81(a) Bills and Joint Resolutions" and shall note the session days remaining for action.

(b) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but shall have received an equal number of affirmative votes and negative votes of the Senators present (the same number but less than 25 of each the yeas and nays), such bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote, without debate, on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution at the beginning of the calendar, ahead of all other business, under the separate heading "Rule 81(b) Bills and Joint Resolutions" and shall note the days remaining for action.

(c) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but has received 25 affirmative votes and 25 negative votes of the Senators present, and the President of the Senate is not present to give the deciding vote, such bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote, without debate, on a subsequent day that the Senate is convened when the President of the Senate is present. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution at the beginning of the calendar, ahead of all other business, under the separate heading "Rule 81(c) Bills and Joint Resolutions". If the author fails to call the bill or joint resolution down for a second and final vote by the deadline for third reading of bills under Rule 79, that exact language or substantially similar language shall be considered decisively defeated and shall not be considered again during the session.

(d) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority (the initial vote), but shall have received the negative vote of a majority of the Senators present (more nays than yeas but less than 26 nays), such bill or joint resolution shall be in order for reconsideration on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote. Once the bill is in order for reconsideration, any Senator of the prevailing (nays) side may, make a motion to reconsider the bill. The vote on such motion shall be without debate. If the motion to reconsider passes, the bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final at any time within the three (3) day period that the Senate is convened following the initial vote. This second and final vote on the bill shall be without debate. Only one motion to reconsider a bill or joint resolution shall be in order during the session. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution at the beginning of the calendar, ahead of all other business, under the separate heading "Rule 81(d) Bills and Joint Resolutions" and shall note the days remaining for action.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (d), whenever a particular bill or joint resolution receives a constitutional majority of votes against its passage (26 or more nays), that exact language or substantially similar language shall be considered decisively defeated and shall not be considered again during the session.

(f) If the author fails to call the bill or joint resolution down for a second and final vote within the three (3) day period provided in subsections (a), (b) and (d) of this Rule, that exact language or substantially similar language shall be considered decisively defeated and shall not be considered again during the session.

(g) Decisive defeat does not apply to the operating or construction budgets or to state revenue raising measures which may be brought before the Senate in the same or different bills until adopted.

(h) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, no motion to place the bill or joint resolution back on second reading for purposes of amendment shall be in order at any time unless:

- (1) It is a House bill or House joint resolution that has not been amended in the Senate in committee or on the floor; and
- (2) A motion requesting permission of the Senate to offer a motion to place the bill back on second reading for purposes of amendment is adopted by a majority of the Senators present and voting.

(d) Notice of a conference committee meeting including all the information set forth in Rule 85(b) shall be posted prominently outside the Senate Chamber and may be posted publicly in electronic format and House Chambers for no less than one (1) hour prior to said meeting.

86. (a) Each report of a conference committee for the adjustment of differences between the Senate and House, together with a digest of the bill and the changes made, shall be reduced to writing, signed by the appointed conferees, reviewed by the Majority Attorney and Minority Attorney, filed with the Office of the Principal Secretary at least eight (8) hours before action is taken thereon, and distributed to the Senators at least four (4) hours before action is taken thereon. If approved by the President Pro Tempore, electronic signature PINs may be accepted.

(b) The four (4) appointed conferees must sign the conference committee report before said report will be accepted for filing. The conference committee report may only be carried for signature by members of the legislature or authorized staff of the Senate or House.

(c) All conference committee reports requiring title amendments shall be stamped "Title Amendment."

(h) A conference committee report which is eligible for consideration may be withdrawn only with the approval of the Senate upon a written motion made by the first Senate conferee.

(i) In order to pass, a conference committee report must be approved by a majority of the members elected. Such majority shall be established by roll call vote. A conference committee report that has not received a constitutional majority of votes against its passage (26 or more nays) may be called down at any time by the first Senate conferee for a second and final vote.

(j) Adoption of a conference committee report by the Senate may only be withdrawn when all of the following are met:

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. President: The Senate Committee on Joint Rules recommends the Joint Rules of both Houses for the 120th General Assembly of the State of Indiana be amended and adopted as follows:

JOINT RULES FOR CONDUCTING BUSINESS IN THE TWO HOUSES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF INDIANA

1. After a bill or resolution has passed one house and before it shall be transmitted to the other house for further action, it shall be the duty of the author to furnish to the clerk of the house of origin a card bearing the name of the party selected as sponsor in the other house, which card shall be attached to the bill and transmitted therewith.

2. (a) After a bill or joint resolution shall have passed both houses it shall be duly enrolled on paper, and the clerk of the house where it originated shall certify over his or her signature upon the back thereof the house in which it originated, the dates upon which it passed the House and Senate, respectively, and the number of votes cast for and against it in each house.

(b) Every enrolled bill or joint resolution shall be printed in enrolled act form. The session of the General Assembly shall be indicated on the face of such printed enrollment. In the case of enrolled bills proposing to amend any then existing Indiana statute, the text shall reflect any change from the text of the then existing statute. This shall be accomplished by the use of bold face type to indicate the addition of new material to the text of the then existing statute, and canceled type to indicate the deletion of existing material.

3. Every bill or joint resolution, after having been enrolled, shall be examined by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures of the house in which it originated, which shall compare the enrolled copy with the engrossed copy, or cause the author thereof to do so, taking special care that the engrossed amendments adopted by either house, if any there be, shall have been properly incorporated in said enrolled copy and shall report in writing to said house any errors therein.

4. (a) Every bill or joint resolution reported to have been duly enrolled shall be signed ~~first~~ by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, ~~who shall send the same to the Senate; then by~~ and the President and President Pro Tempore of the Senate, ~~after~~ After which, ~~it every bill~~ it every bill shall be presented by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Governor for his signature.

(b) Except as provided in this rule, all bills and joint resolutions shall be signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate, in their houses respectively, when in session.

(c) During a recess period, the Speaker and the President of the Senate may sign bills and resolutions in their respective offices. ~~A list of the bills and resolutions signed during any recess shall be read immediately upon the reconvening of each house.~~

5. A record of all bills and resolutions signed, whether in session or during a recess, shall be kept in the Journals of each house.

6. When any paper or papers, proper to be acted upon by both houses, shall come before either, the house before which such paper or papers are laid shall, after acting thereupon, lay it or them before the other house.

7. (a) In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one house, and dissented to in the other, either house may request a conference and appoint a committee for that purpose; the other house may also appoint a committee. A conference committee shall consist of two members from each house; one member from the house in which the bill or resolution originated shall be named as chairman by the appointing authority of the house of origination.

(b) Conferees shall state to each other verbally or in writing, as either shall choose, the reason of their respective houses for and against the amendment, and confer freely thereon and report to each house their proceedings thereon. Meetings of conference committees shall be held at a convenient hour agreed upon by the conferees and shall be open to the public, whenever feasible, in which event, notice shall be posted before such meeting in accordance with the rules of the house in which the bill originated. It is the intent of this joint rule to provide public access to the legislative process without hindering, intimidating or disrupting that process.

8. In all cases where the Doorkeeper of one house shall, by reason of official engagement, or other causes, be unable to execute the commands or process of the house of which he is an officer, it shall be the duty of the Doorkeeper of the other house to execute such commands, together with such process as may be directed to him by the presiding officer thereof.

9. A joint standing committee to be called the Committee on Joint Rules shall be appointed, to consist of four Senators, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party, four Representatives, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, which last two officers shall be ex officio members of the Committee.

10. All joint conventions shall be held in the hall of the House of Representatives unless a different place shall be designated in the resolution by which such joint convention is convened. All such joint conventions shall be presided over by the President of the Senate, or if for any reason the President of the Senate be absent or decline to preside, then the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall preside.

11. In all joint conventions and joint meetings of the two houses no business shall be transacted other than that for which they were assembled.

12. When a message is sent to the Senate or to the House of Representatives, it shall be delivered in written or electronic form to the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House, who shall deliver such message to the Chair.

13. Messages shall be sent by such persons as the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or Speaker of the House may designate for that purpose.

14. When bills which have passed one house are ordered to be printed in the other, a greater number of copies shall not be printed than may be necessary for the use of the house making the order.

~~15. When the Governor has informed either house of the General Assembly that he has signed a bill or joint resolution, or taken any other action affecting both houses of the General Assembly, the house to which his action is reported shall inform the other house of the General Assembly of the Governor's report. This rule was deemed obsolete and removed in 2017.~~

16. Any proposed amendments to these rules shall be referred to the Committee on Joint Rules.

17. The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall at the time of delivery of the enrolled acts and resolutions for the signature of the presiding officer leave with the minute clerk a copy of a written message setting out the numbers of the enrolled acts or resolutions so submitted.

18. A motion to recess for more than three days shall be deemed to have failed unless approved by a majority of the members elected in each house. Such majority shall be established by roll call vote.

19. The joint rules, upon adoption, shall govern the General Assembly for the term of that General Assembly unless suspended or amended.

20. If:

(1) two bills amending the same section of the Indiana Code are approved in the same session of the General Assembly, and neither bill recognizes the existence of the other;

(2) one bill amends a section of the Indiana Code and another bill repeals that section with an effective date preceding the effective date of the amendment; or

(3) two bills each add a new provision to the Indiana Code at the same code citation without either bill recognizing the addition made by the other and both bills are approved in the same session of the General Assembly; one of the two bills may be corrected at enrollment to recognize the existence of the other by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure of the Senate. However, a correction under this rule is limited to the extent necessary to resolve the technical conflict and may not be made unless the report of each of the two committees includes the written consent of the respective committee's ranking minority member. In addition, the committee report in each house must include the written consent of the corrected bill's author or sponsor, as the case may be, in that house. A technical conflict is one that does not change the substance of either bill. It is at the discretion of both the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure of the Senate as to whether a conflict is technical.

21. If a bill is passed which clearly expresses the intent that a SECTION thereof becomes effective on a date other than the standard statutory effective date set forth in the Indiana Code, but does not use the technical emergency provision for such effective date, then the Rules and Legislative Procedures Committee of the House of Representatives and the Rules and Legislative Procedure Committee of the Senate may correct the bill at enrollment to include the technical emergency provision for the expressed effective date. For the correction to be made, each House must adopt a committee report setting forth the correction and containing the written consent of the Chairperson and ranking minority member of the Rules Committee of that House and the author or sponsor of the bill in that House.

President Pro Tempore

Report adopted.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. President: The Senate Committee on Ethics recommends the Senate Code of Ethics contained in Senate Rules 90 through 99 be amended and adopted as follows:

STANDING RULES AND ORDERS OF THE SENATE VII. ETHICS

90. It is declared that high moral and ethical standards among State Senators are essential to the conduct of free government; that the Senate believes that a code of ethics for the guidance of State Senators will help them avoid conflicts of interest in public office, will improve standards of public service, and will promote and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of Indiana. The code is intended to protect the individual Senators while providing guidelines for all members of the Senate.

Recognizing that service in the Indiana General Assembly is a part-time endeavor and that members of the General Assembly are individuals who are active in the affairs of their localities and elsewhere and that it is necessary that they maintain a livelihood and source of income apart from their legislative compensation, the following guidelines are adopted to assist the members in the conduct of their legislative duties.

91. A Senator who is offered:

(1) an economic or investment opportunity; or
(2) a loan, gratuity, discount, favor, hospitality, or other goods or services; by a person, shall consider, in determining whether or not to accept the offer, whether the Senator's acceptance of the offer may affect the Senator's independent legislative judgement. In so considering, the Senator shall take into account the following:

(A) whether the opportunity is being offered with the intent to influence the Senator's conduct in the performance of legislative duties; or

(B) whether acceptance of the offer would have a unique, direct, and material effect on the nonlegislative income of the Senator, a member of the Senator's immediate family or those of a partnership, corporation or business in which the Senator holds a legal or equitable interest.

Should the Senator determine that, by acceptance of the offer, the Senator's independent legislative judgement may be affected, the Senator shall refuse the offer.

92. A Senator who has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in a piece of legislation which is so substantial as to affect the Senator's independent legislative judgement is not precluded from participating in committee and floor debate on the legislation, if the Senator publicly proclaims that interest.

93. During the course of a legislative session, a Senator may be placed in a position where the Senator has the obligation to vote on legislation in which the Senator has a direct personal or pecuniary interest. In making this decision the Senator shall consider the following:

(1) Whether the Senator's interest in the legislation is so substantial as to affect the Senator's independence of judgment with respect to the legislation.

(2) To what extent the Senator's interest in the legislation mirrors the interest of the citizenry to which the Senator is directly responsible.

(3) The effect of the Senator's participation in the voting on the legislation on public confidence in the integrity of the legislature.

(4) The need of the Senator's particular contribution, such as special knowledge of the subject matter, to the effective functioning of the legislature.

(5) Whether the legislation would have a unique, direct, and material effect on the nonlegislative income of the Senator, a member of the Senator's immediate family or those of a partnership, corporation, or business in which the Senator holds a legal or equitable interest.

94. A Senator may request the assistance of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee (established pursuant to ~~IC 2-2.1-3-5~~ IC 2-2.2-3-1) in determining the propriety of the Senator's:

- (1) proposed acceptance of an offer;
- (2) participation in upcoming debate; or
- (3) participation in an upcoming vote.

95. Under Rule 94, the Senator shall:

(1) Prepare a written statement describing the matter requiring action or decision by the Senator and the nature of the Senator's potential conflict of interest; and

(2) Deliver a copy of the statement to the Chairman of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee. If the chairman is unavailable, a copy of the statement may be delivered to the President Pro Tempore.

96. If a Senator requests the assistance of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee under Rule 94, and there is insufficient time to comply with Rule 95, the Senator shall orally inform the Chairman of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee of the potential conflict. The matter shall then be immediately referred to the Legislative Ethics Committee for its recommendation. The Committee shall issue an oral recommendation to the Senator making the request as soon as possible after considering the request. The Committee shall follow the oral recommendation with a written report as required by Senate Rule 98.

97. The Legislative Ethics Committee shall meet as soon as possible and render an advisory opinion on the question raised. Should the committee vote result in a tie, the effect will be to make no recommendation.

98. The written report of the Legislative Ethics Committee shall be forwarded to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Senate Minority Leader. Copies of the report and the written statement of the Senator making the request shall be maintained in the offices of the Secretary of the Senate and the Minority Attorney. The committee's written report and the written statement of the Senator making the request under Rule 95 shall remain confidential unless the Senator making the request consents to their disclosure.

99. In addition to any meetings held under Rule 97, the Senate

Legislative Ethics Committee ~~shall~~ may: (1) meet and may recommend amendments to the code of ethics for the Senate not later than thirty (30) days after the first session day of each legislative session, pursuant to IC 2-2.1-3-6. pursuant to IC 2-2.2-3-4 and (2) receive complaints pursuant to IC 2-2.2-3-5.

Enclosure

November 9, 2016

Dear Senator Long:

In accordance with IC 5-8-3.5-1, please accept this letter as my official resignation as Indiana State Senator for Senate District 17, effective November 9, 2016, at 6:00 p.m.

It has been an honor to serve Indiana's 17th Senate District over the past six years. I have considered it a great privilege to serve in the Indiana General Assembly and represent my home area at the Indiana Statehouse.

I am proud of the progress our state has made during my time as a State Senator. Under your leadership, we enacted pro-growth policies that have spurred job creation, attracted new investment, and maintained Indiana's strong fiscal position. Additionally, we took important steps to support Hoosier veterans and improve Indiana's education system. And we passed many important bills to promote a culture of life in our state.

Thanks in large part to your leadership and the efforts of Governors Mitch Daniels and Mike Pence, today Indiana is the envy of every state. Over the past six years, I have learned so much from you as a leader, and I appreciate all you have done for me and my family. You set the standard for public service in Indiana, and I am grateful for your friendship.

As I transition to a new role in the United States Congress, I look forward to telling the Indiana success story in Washington and building on the lessons I have learned during my time in the Indiana Senate.

With the utmost respect,

Jim Banks
State Senator
